Brief report on the event:

The Department of English, Pandu College, successfully organised the Second Pranab Kumar Das Memorial Annual Lecture Programme on 4th March, 2025 at 10 AM in the Digital Classroom (Administrative Block).

The resource person for the programme was Dr. Kalpana Bora, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Cotton University, who delivered a thought-provoking lecture on the topic “The Politics of Re-reading: Text and Contexts.”

Dr. Bora’s lecture explored the significance of re-reading canonical as well as contemporary texts in changing socio-political contexts. She highlighted how reinterpretation allows readers to challenge established narratives and engage critically with issues of power, identity, and representation. The session provided fresh perspectives on textual analysis and encouraged participants to approach literature with renewed critical awareness.

The programme was attended by students, faculty members, and well-wishers, who actively engaged in the interactive session that followed the lecture. The event served as a fitting tribute to Late Pranab Kumar Das, whose legacy continues to inspire academic dialogue and critical engagement in the Department.

The lecture concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the distinguished speaker, participants, and organisers for making the event a resounding success.
