Brief report on the event:

The Department of English, Pandu College, in collaboration with the Pandu College Campus Cine Club, organised a Film Screening and Discussion Programme on 13th February, 2025 at Room No. A-005. The event was part of the Department's syllabus-based film screening initiative aimed at integrating cinema with literary and cultural studies.

The critically acclaimed film Rudaali (1993), directed by Kalpana Lajmi and based on the 1979 short story by Bengali author Mahasweta Devi, was screened for the students. The screening was followed by an interactive discussion that encouraged participants to analyse the film's socio-political and cultural contexts.

Faculty members highlighted how Rudaali addresses questions of gender, caste, and marginalisation, while also drawing attention to Mahasweta Devi's contribution to socially committed literature. Students actively participated in the discussion, offering interpretations that connected the film with broader themes in the curriculum.

The programme provided a valuable platform for students to engage with visual narratives as an extension of literary study, thereby enriching their critical and analytical skills.
