Brief report on the event:

The Department of English, Pandu College, organised an educational field trip to the Don Bosco Centre for Indigenous Cultures (DBCIC), Shillong, Meghalaya on 1st March, 2025. The trip was designed to provide students with experiential learning beyond the classroom and to familiarise them with the rich cultural diversity of North-East India.

At the Centre, students explored various galleries showcasing the traditions, lifestyles, and artistic heritage of the different indigenous communities of the region. The interactive exhibits, audio-visual presentations, and the skywalk offered a multi-dimensional experience, enabling the participants to connect cultural history with contemporary issues of identity and representation.

Faculty members of the Department accompanied the students and guided them in understanding the academic relevance of the visit. The trip not only enhanced their awareness of indigenous cultures but also encouraged critical reflection on literature, culture, and society.

Students were further encouraged to prepare reports on their experiences, thereby combining observation with academic writing practice. Their responses reflected enthusiasm, creativity, and deep engagement with the themes encountered during the trip.

The educational field trip proved to be both informative and inspiring, fulfilling its objective of holistic learning and cultural appreciation.
