Brief report on the event:

As part of the 5th Annual Young Researchers Conference, held on 11th March, 2025 (Tuesday) in the Digital Classroom (Arts Block), Pandu College, the Department of English, Pandu College successfully organised an Academic Exchange Programme.

The programme was facilitated under the active MoUs signed between the Department of English, Pandu College, the Department of English, Paschim Guwahati Mahavidyalaya, and the Department of English, Pub-Bongsor College. It served as a collaborative platform to promote academic interaction and intellectual exchange among students and faculty members of the three institutions.

The technical sessions of the conference, which formed a vital part of the exchange initiative, were chaired by Dr. Prabalika Sarma, Associate Professor, Department of English, Paschim Guwahati Mahavidyalaya, and Dr. Himadri Bharali, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Pub-Bongsor College. Their guidance ensured an engaging and intellectually stimulating atmosphere for research paper presentations and discussions.

Students from both Paschim Guwahati Mahavidyalaya and Pandu College presented research papers based on their respective syllabi. The exchange programme provided students with valuable opportunities to present their research, interact with peers from other institutions, and gain fresh perspectives on diverse literary and cultural issues. Faculty collaboration also strengthened the spirit of partnership, reaffirming the role of academic exchange in broadening the horizons of research and scholarship.

The initiative was well received and marked a significant step towards sustaining inter-institutional collaboration through meaningful dialogue and shared learning.
